

THE BETTY LEE EVANS NURSING EXCELLENCE AWARD

Dr. E. Burke Evans established this endowment in 2004 as a lasting tribute to his grandmother and her namesake, his sister, Betty Lee Evans. Dr. Evans was a faculty member at UTMB in the Department of Orthopedics and passed away in 2012.

Nominee must be a UTMB School of Nursing graduate, employed at UTMB, who has made outstanding contributions to health care in the UTMB system. The Betty Lee Evans Nursing Excellence Award recognizes nursing practice and the delivery of excellence in patient care at UTMB by graduates of the UTMB School of Nursing.

Please complete the information below to nominate someone for the:

BETTY LEE EVANS NURSING EXCELLENCE AWARD.

Nominations are accepted year-round. To be considered for Homecoming 2020, please forward nominations by: March 27, 2020 to Julie Cantini at julie.cantini@utmb.edu.

View former award recipients at: SON Former Award Recipients

BETTY LEE EVANS NURSING EXCELLENCE AWARD NOMINATION

Name: _____

Current Position at UTMB: _____

Graduation Year from UTMB School of Nursing: _____

Please submit a one-page letter providing examples of how the nominee has made outstanding contributions to health care in the UTMB system. Examples may include but are not limited to: patient recognition letters, mention in patient survey, GEM (Going the Extra Mile) cards, creation of an innovative tool/project to support nursing role. Include the nominee's CV or resume.

Nominator's Name: _____

Phone Number and Email: _____

Date Submitted: _____

Return to: Julie Cantini – UTMB Office of Alumni Relations
301 University Boulevard ▪ Galveston, TX 77555-0147
Direct: 409-772-2351 | Fax: 409-747-3350 | julie.cantini@utmb.edu